.about { I'm Priyanka Gupta, a UI / UX developer living and working in Gurgaon. I'm passionate about creating designs which reflects uniqueness, creativity and originality. My aim is always to build a clean and quality code with amazing user experience. I drive my enthusiasm towards learning new things and push myself beyond limit in order to acquire knowledge.
    Apart from all this I keep myself engaged in connecting with new people, dribbling and writing things with symphony of traveller, explorer, food-lover and love to hop on beats.
